

Meet the family man behind our P.O

Describe what you do at Platinum Health in one sentence?

As the Principal Officer, I am responsible for governance, compliance and stakeholder management for the scheme in terms of the medical schemes act.

What's your personal mission for your role?

My mission is to position PH as a respected and influential brand in the platinum and chrome industry.

What do you hope to achieve for the organisation?

I aspire to make the Principal Officers role more accessible and responsive to all members, regardless of their social status.

What are some of your career highlights whilst being with Platinum Health?

One highlight has been enabling mine workers to affordably cover their families within the scheme by implementing salary-based contribution bands.

What are some of your favourite things in life? You can describe hobbies or anything that would give us some insight into who you are.

I have a deep appreciation for music, especially jazz and classical genres. I also enjoy travelling, gardening and doing home improvements.

Tell us a little bit about your family?

I am married with 5 children and 1 grandchild. A family tradition we cherish is celebrating each members birthday with a special dinner, regardless of the circumstances.
